

for said county, and may be liable to be sued and recovered upon, by said County Commissioners, for any neglect or failure by said contractors, as in the case of other bonds with conditions, in the Circuit Court for said county.

Compensation. Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said building committee, after the acceptance and approval of such contract as aforesaid, shall superintend the said work, and may during the progress thereof, with the assent of the said County Commissioners and of said contractor or contractors, make or authorize any alteration in such plan as may seem advisable; and the said committee shall each receive a compensation of two dollars per day for every day of actual service in the discharge of their duties under this act, to be paid out of the fund hereinafter provided.

Levy to be made. Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That at the next regular levy-laying term of said County Commissioners, after the passage of this act, they shall levy a special tax sufficient to defray all the cost of the work hereby authorized, and of all incidental expenses necessary to the carrying out of this act; provided, the whole sum so levied shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars, and shall be payable, on the order of said County Commissioners, to the parties respectively entitled to the same.

Proviso.

Commissioners may refuse to accept work Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners shall not be bound to accept the said work when completed, unless the same be done in a workmanlike and sufficient manner; and if the same be rejected by them they may refuse to levy any compensation for said contractors, unless required so to do by judgment of the Circuit Court of said county reversing their said refusal upon appeal, which appeal is hereby allowed.

To provide safeguards. Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized and required from the passage of this act, to provide any additional safeguards that may in their discretion be necessary (until the completion of said work) for the safe custody of prisoners in said jail, and during the repair or rebuilding thereof they may provide additional places for their custody, and shall provide for all such expenses in the annual levy.