

Issuing of notes, &c., prohibited.

Record book to be kept, &c.

Donation of burial lots.

Board of Directors.

Vacancies—how filled.

Cemetery exempt from taxation.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize the said corporation to issue any note, token, device or scrip, or other evidence of debt, to be used as currency, and that the said corporation shall keep a bound book, in which shall be recorded the meetings and proceedings of the said corporation, and President and Managers, the charter or act of incorporation, the plan or plat of the grounds, and of the lots and walks laid off, and the sales and transfers of the same, and all by-laws, and other proceedings, and which said book and proceedings shall be evidence in any court or before any Justice of the Peace; and that the said President and Managers shall have the power to donate two burial lots to whoever may make a donation of lands for such Cemetery to said corporation, and the lots thus donated upon certificate shall be held by the same title and subject to all the laws and regulations of other lots and lot holders.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That George Vickers, Thomas W. Eliason, Samuel W. Spencer, John S. Stam, John T. Dood and William A. Vickers, be and they are hereby appointed the first Board of Directors or Managers of the said corporation, to hold their offices for two years or until their successors shall be chosen, in the manner hereinbefore provided, and that the first named in this section shall be the President of the said company or corporation.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That if the corporators, or the President and Board of Managers, shall refuse or neglect, for twelve months, to fill vacancies, the Orphans' Court of Kent county, for the time being, shall have authority to fill them; that this charter shall not fail because of remissness to fill vacancies or to keep up a Board of Managers, but appointments by the Orphans' Court shall have the same effect as if the members were elected or appointed according to the former provisions of the charter; the President, in case of removal or vacancy, shall be elected by the Managers, and that the said Cemetery shall be exempt from taxation of every kind.

In force.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the first day of April next.