

hundred dollars of such fund ; and the said Board shall prescribe rules and regulations for the management and government of said schools, setting forth the course of studies to be observed, the character and kind of books to be used, and such other rules as they may think proper ; and the register of said Board shall furnish each teacher a copy of said rules and regulations, and the said Board shall withhold payment from any teacher who wilfully refuses or neglects to observe the same.

Rules for the government of schools.

Sec. 3. That section sixty-two of said Article be repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Repealed.

Sixty-two. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners annually to levy for the use of the Public Schools the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars in payment of the interest on money borrowed by the county from the school fund, as per act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter fifty-seven, and the County Commissioners shall also annually levy for the use of the schools the further sum of three hundred dollars in payment of arrearages of interest due from the county to the school fund, by reason of the non-payment of such interest from eighteen hundred and forty-five to eighteen hundred and fifty-four, until such arrearages shall be liquidated ; which levies shall not be charged upon tax bills as school tax, but shall be included in the county tax.

Annual levy, &c.

Sec. 4. That section sixty-eight of said Article be repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Repealed.

Sixty-eight. The School Commissioners shall receive the same compensation as that now allowed by law to the County Commissioners, to be levied in the same manner, but no School Commissioner shall be allowed for more than ten days service in one year.

Compensation of school commissioners.

Sec. 5. That section sixty-nine of said Article be repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Repealed.

Sixty-nine. The Board of Commissioners of Public Schools shall arrange in tabular form a scale

Tuition fees.