

CHAPTER 154.

Passed March 1, 1862. AN ACT to amend section twelve of Article five of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled, "Appeals," relating to prayers and instructions in trial at law, and points and questions to be decided on appeal.

Repealed. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the twelfth section of Article five of the Code of Public General Laws, is hereby repealed, and the following section substituted in the place thereof:

Court of Appeals—questions for its decision, &c. 12. The Court of Appeals shall in no case decide any point or question which does not appear by the record to have been tried and decided by the court below; but no prayer or instruction shall be deemed defective by reason of any assumption therein, of any fact by the said court, or because of a question of law having been thereby submitted to the jury; unless it appears from the record that such objection was taken at the trial.

CHAPTER 155.

Passed March 3, 1862. AN ACT to repeal the three hundred and fourteenth section of Article ninety-three of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to the probate of Wills or Codicils, and to insert in lieu thereof the following section:

Repealed. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the three hundred and fourteenth section of Article ninety-three of the Code of Public General Laws, is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:

Probate of Wills. 314. Any Will or Codicil may be proved in any county or city, wherein letters testamentary or of administration may be granted.
