

CHAPTER 160.

AN ACT to add a section to the thirteenth Article of the Code of Public Local Laws, relating to the duties of Trustees of Primary Schools in Howard county. Passed March 7, 1862.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following be added as a section to the thirteen Article of the Code of Public Local Laws, in relation to the duties of Trustees of Primary Schools in Howard county, to be inserted between the seventy-third and seventy-fourth sections: Repealed.

That it shall be the duty of the Trustees of each Primary School in Howard county, to have a public examination of the scholars of such school at the school house, at least once in every year, which examination shall be attended by the said trustees, and the progress of said scholars as evinced by said examination, shall be reported to the Inspectors of Primary Schools, to aid such inspectors in forming an opinion of the qualifications of the teachers of said schools, and the trustees shall report the fact that said examination has been held, to the Commissioners of said county, as preliminary to drawing any money for the said school. Annual public examination of scholars.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage. In force.
