

sections, shall be paid by the owner of the sheep, and may be returned with the appraisement as costs.

Repealed. Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That section one hundred and eighty-five of said Article be repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Payment of appraisement. 185. All appraisements for damages to sheep, shall be filed in the office of the county commissioners, and shall be paid according to priority of date; provided, that no appraisement shall be paid, unless filed within three months of the date when the sheep were killed or injured, nor unless the owner of said sheep, shall make affidavit, to be filed with the appraisement, that said sheep were killed or injured by a dog or dogs not owned or harbored by him, and that he has no means of recovering the value thereof from the owner or owners of the dog or dogs that killed or injured them.

Repealed. Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That section one hundred and eighty-eight of said Article be repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Payment of tax on dogs; duty of collector. 188. If any owner or keeper of an assessed dog shall be unable or unwilling to pay the tax thereon, and the collector can find no property out of which to make the tax, the collector shall forthwith proceed to kill said dog or dogs, and shall be allowed for each and every dog he shall kill, the sum of twenty-five cents, to be paid out of the fund arising from the tax on dogs.

In force. Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
