

949. No person shall retail or huckster wood on any wharf in the city of Baltimore, under a common trader's license, or without having first obtained a license for said purpose, as provided in the preceding section of this bill; and any person so offending shall be fined one hundred dollars, one half for the use of the State, and the other half for the use of the person who shall prosecute for the same.

Right to sell wood restricted to parties licensed for the purpose.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the thirtieth day of April next.

In force.

CHAPTER 174.

AN ACT to amend sections seventy-three, seventy-four and seventy-five of Article seventy-five of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled, Pleadings, Practice and Process, relating to the removal of causes, and to repeal sections seventy-two of said Article, relating to such removal of causes.

Passed Feb. 18, 1862.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section seventy-two of Article seventy-five of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled, Pleadings, Practice and Process, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repealed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That section seventy-three of said Article, be repealed, and the following section be enacted as a substitute therefor:

Section repealed—substitute.

73. When any suit or action, issues, petition, presentment or indictment, shall be removed to an adjoining county, according to the provisions of the seventy-first section of this Article, it shall be lawful for the party who was not the party at whose instance the same was removed, to file an affidavit as before required in the court to which the removal is made, suggesting that he cannot have justice in such county; whereupon the said

Removal of cases.