

Sums appropriate. Chamber and Hall of Delegates; to pay Dunnett & Finney, or order, ninety-one dollars seventy-five cents, for work done on Water Closets in State House; to Baltimore City Passenger Railway Company, eighty-four dollars, for removing State arms to Fort McHenry by order of the Governor; to Hiss and Austin, or order, seventy-three dollars and forty-five cents, for furniture for Speaker's Room; to William J. Jewell, or order, for painting Rooms of Speaker and President of the Senate, sixty dollars and twelve cents; to Whitney, Cushing & Company, or order, fifty-eight dollars and fifty cents, for books and stationery for the Committee on Claims; to James Iglehart, or order, forty-seven dollars and one cent, for paints and work done on Senate Chamber and Hall of Delegates; to Louis Gootee, or order, forty-six dollars and eighty-two cents, for repairs on Speaker's Room; to William Wiggins, or order, forty-three dollars and thirty-eight cents, for plastering and repairs on State House; to John Lindenborn, or order, forty-two dollars and eighty-eight cents, for case for Committee Room and work done on State House; to John W. Davis, or order, thirty-three dollars, for work done on State House; to N. R. Merryman, or order, twenty-nine dollars and thirty-nine cents, for stove and fixtures for Speaker's Room; to Thomas McGlannan, or order, twenty-nine dollars and seventy-five cents, for Room of President of the Senate; to William Dadds, or order, fifteen dollars, for stove for Room of the President of the Senate; to Paul Martin, or order, seven dollars and fifty cents, for ice.