

CHAPTER 206.

Passed March 8, 1862. AN ACT appropriating a sum of money to pay Eleanora B. Watkins, widow of the late Col. Gassaway Watkins, a Captain in the American Revolution, on account of pension money due and unpaid from the sixteenth of July, eighteen hundred and forty, to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-two.

Preamble. WHEREAS, by Act of Assembly passed January session, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, the said Eleanor B. Watkins was allowed a pension equal to the half pay of a Captain in the American Revolution; and whereas, it appears to this General Assembly, that the pension as therein allowed, should have dated from the sixteenth day of July, eighteen hundred and forty, the date of the death of her said husband, instead of the first day of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-two: Therefore, Appropriation. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars, be and the same is hereby appropriated, and the Treasurer upon the warrant of the Comptroller, is hereby directed to pay the said Eleanor B. Watkins, or order, the said sum of money, or as much thereof as may upon the Comptroller's examination be found to be due her, at the rate of two hundred and forty dollars, per annum, from the death of her said husband to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-two.

In force. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
