

be the duty of the said President to keep an accurate record of the proceedings of said Board, in a well bound book; it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners for said county, to provide for said Board of School Commissioners, a suitable room wherein to hold their said meetings.

Election of Treasurer—his duties and compensation.

Provisos

83. And be it further enacted, The Board of School Commissioners shall at their first meeting, annually thereafter, elect a Treasurer of the Board of Commissioners of Public Schools, who shall give bond to the State of Maryland, in such sum as said Board may determine, with at least two good securities, to be approved by them; the said Treasurer shall semi-annually, or at such other times as may be required, render an account to said Board, thereby exhibiting all monies on hand, and received by him, and all disbursements made by him, with his vouchers thereof, and which said settlement shall be entered upon the records of said Board before the termination of his term of office, or upon his death, resignation or removal, it shall be his duty or that of his personal representatives, to pay over all such funds, vouchers, books and papers pertaining to said office, to his successor, who shall give a proper acquittance therefor; the said Treasurer shall be entitled to and receive from the general school fund, two per cent. on all monies coming into his hands as compensation for his services; provided, that no one of said Board of School Commissioners, during his continuance in office, shall be eligible to the office of Treasurer; and provided further, that the said Treasurer may at any time, upon good and sufficient cause, to be judged of by said County Commissioners, be removed from his said office of Treasurer.

Powers and duties of Commissioners—
employment of Teachers, &c.

Proviso.

85. Be it enacted, That the said Board of Commissioners shall have power to employ teachers and fix their salaries, to prescribe the course of study and the books to be used; they shall superintend generally and particularly all the interests and operations of the schools under their charge, and shall make all such by-laws for their government, and rules and regulations for the management of the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, as they may deem expedient, and the same may modify or repeal at pleasure, provided, that no teacher shall be employed against