

Trustees shall take oath, &c.

37. And be it enacted, That each Trustee shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, before some Judge or Justice of the Peace, take and subscribe an oath, that he will diligently and faithfully execute the duties and trusts, and exercise the powers, committed to and vested in him, as Trustee of the Poor of Baltimore city, according to the best of his skill and judgment.

Misbehavior
of paupers—
power of Trust-
tees.

39. And be it enacted, That upon complaint made to said Trustee, by the overseer of said Almshouse, and due proof made thereof, that any pauper in said Almshouse has behaved in a disorderly manner, or has neglected to obey and keep any of the ordinances, rules and by-laws of the said corporation, the said Trustees may order and direct such moderate and proper correction for any such offence, as the nature of the case may require.

Trustees—
when competent to perform
duty.

58. And be it enacted, That when the said Trustees, or a majority of them, shall have taken and subscribed the said oath, they shall be qualified and competent to perform all the duties of Trustees.

Badges may be directed to be worn by the inmates of the Almshouse.

61. And be it enacted, That when deemed necessary, the Trustees may require such badge as they may select, to be worn in an open and visible manner, on the arm or shoulder of any inmate of the Almshouse, and if any inmate shall neglect or refuse to wear such badge he or she shall be subject to such moderate and proper punishment as the Trustees may see proper to inflict.

In force.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.
