

dition, rebound and a certificate to that effect recorded therein.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That in all cases wherein process may be issued to summon parties before the Commissioners which shall be returned non est, no final order shall be passed in the premises until public notice shall have been first given in some one of the newspapers published in said county, once a week, for at least three weeks, and no order shall be passed upon any record or paper alleged to be destroyed or injured by fire which shall in anywise have the effect to impair or interfere with the rights of third parties not appearing to or contesting any issue before the said Commissioners, and any party to any issue or examination had before said Commissioners, shall have the right, at any time within thirty days, of appeal from any order passed by them to the Circuit Judge for said county, and the said Commissioners shall be and they are hereby required to carry into effect the order of the said Judge in the premises.

Final orders upon records or papers.

Appeals.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That when any docket shall have been wholly or partially destroyed by fire, the said Commissioners shall cause the same to be made up anew from the trial papers, auxiliary dockets, or any evidence in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, which may be accessible from the burnt remains of any docket or papers, or otherwise, and when such dockets shall have been made up, the said Commissioners shall certify the same, under their hands and seals, to the Judge of the Circuit Court, and it shall be the duty of the said Judge to examine such renewed docket or dockets, as the case may be, and if found to be correct, to adopt the same as the dockets of the court, and the said Judge shall signify such adoption by a certificate, in writing, upon each of such dockets, and such renewed dockets shall be as valid and effectual in law as the original dockets would have been had they not been destroyed or in any way injured by fire.

Dockets destroyed—Commissioners required to cause same to be made up anew, &c.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That when any cause of action or trial paper, in any case, whether pending or settled at law or in equity, may have been wholly or partially destroyed by fire, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to cause the same

Final papers, &c., destroyed—their restoration provided for.