Article 10. No Director shall be entitled to receive any emolument for his services, unless the same shall have been allowed at a general meeting of the stockholders, and the Directors shall make such compensation to the President, for his extraordinary attendance at the Bank, as shall appear to them reasonable.

Article 11. The President and Directors of this corporation may at any time call a general meeting of its stockholders for any purpose relative to the Institution, giving at least two weeks notice in two or more daily papers printed in Baltimore city; and any number of stockholders owning not less than one-fifth of the stock of the corporation, may at any time examine the books, papers and accounts of such corporation, or may apply to the President and Directors to call a general meeting of the stockholders for any purpose relative to the Institution; and if the President and Directors shall refuse to call such meeting, the said number of stockholders, proprietors of not less than the aforesaid number of shares, shall have power to call a general meeting of the stockholders, giving notice as aforesaid, and specifying in such notice the objects of such meeting; and it is hereby made the duty of the President and Directors, upon the application of any ten stockholders for that purpose, to give such stockholders a full list of the names of all the stockholders in said Bank.

Article 12. Before he enters upon the duties of his office, the Cashier shall be required to give bond, with two or more securities, to the satisfaction of the President and Directors, in a sum not less than fifty thousand dollars, with a condition for the faithful discharge of his duties.
