CHAPTER 7.

AN ACT to further amend the charter of the Associated Firemans Insurance Company of the city of Baltimore.

Passed Dec.
19, 1861.

WHEREAS, The city of Baltimore having established a Paid Steam Fire Department, and the Volunteers Fire Department being about to disband, it becomes necessary to provide for the election of directors on the part of the stockholders at large in the Associated Firemans Insurance Company in the city of Baltimore, instead of as at present by the stockholders in the respective fire companies composing the Volunteer Fire Department; Therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the ninth section, of the act passed December session eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter three hundred and fifty-two, entitled, An act to incorporate the President and Directors of the Associated Fire Insurance Company in the city of Baltimore, and to repeal the act therein mentioned, as limits the holding of stock to members of a fire company in the city of Baltimore, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Section 9 of original act repealed.
