

Repealed. Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the thirtieth section of the thirtieth article of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to the passing of counterfeit Bank Notes, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following section enacted in lieu thereof:

Passing counterfeit notes.

Any person who shall within this State either publish, offer, dispose of, or put off any forged or counterfeited Note or Notes, knowing them to be such, purporting to be the genuine Note or Notes issued as currency by the United States, or of a Bank which has been or may be regularly constituted by this State, or by any of the United States, or by the United States, or any person who shall either publish, offer, dispose of, or put off as genuine, any Note purporting to be a Note of a Bank which does not exist, shall be deemed a felon, and shall on being convicted thereof be sentenced to the Penitentiary, for not less than two nor more than ten years.

Penalty.

In force.
Cases pending not to be affected.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage, but shall not affect any cases pending, but the same shall be prosecuted to conviction and judgment as if this act had not been adopted.

CHAPTER 83.

Passed Feb. 28, 1832.

AN ACT to authorize the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to assess and collect water rates and water tax to supply water on the line of their water works, and to protect said water works from injury.

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section nine hundred and thirty-nine of article four of the Code of Public Laws be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof: