

CHAPTER 88.

Passed March 4, 1861. AN ACT to provide for transcribing one of the Record Books in the office of the Register of Wills for Allegany county.

Register of Wills authorized to transcribe Record, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Register of Wills for Allegany county be and he is hereby required to procure a new book, well bound for that purpose, and to transcribe therein, in a fair, plain and legible hand, all the matters recorded in "Death's Liber B," one of the Record Books in the office of the Register of Wills aforesaid, and to add thereto a summary of returns made by executors and administrators, with a proper and suitable index to the same; and said new book, when completed and furnished, shall and is hereby declared to be substituted in the place and stead of the old one.

Levy to pay the expense of transcribing.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That upon completion of the said book, as herein provided for, and upon the approval and acceptance of the same by the Orphans' Court of said county, the Commissioners of said county shall levy for the use of said Register, as other charges are now levied, such a sum of money as the said transcribing and entries shall amount to, at the rate now allowed by law to Registers for recording, entering and indexing similar matters.

In force.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately after its passage.

CHAPTER 89.

Passed March 4, 1862. AN ACT for the relief of John R. Story, late Sheriff of Queen Anne's county.

Empowered to collect.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John R. Story, late Sheriff of Queen Anne's county, be and he is hereby