

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 17th, 1914.

CHAPTER 84.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 92 of Article 77, of Bagby's Annotated Code of Public Civil Laws of Maryland, entitled "Public Education," sub-title "Teachers' Institutes," the same being designed to authorize boards of County School Commissioners to require a part of the number of teachers of a County, to attend an approved summer school in lieu of holding a teachers' institute.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 92 of Article 77, of Bagby's Annotated Code of Public Civil Laws of Maryland, entitled "Public Education," sub-title "Teachers' Institutes," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

92. A teachers' institute, to continue not less than five days, shall be held in each County once a year, and in the absence of the State Superintendent the County Superintendent shall preside. Two or more Counties may combine and hold a joint institute. The Board of County School Commissioners of any County may in lieu of holding a teachers' institute require at least one-fourth of the number of the teachers of that County to attend a summer school, which has been approved by the State Superintendent of Public Education, during the summer preceding the school session for which no institute is held, provided the said Board of County School Commissioners reimburses those teachers who attend summer school for their expenses to the extent of at least twenty-five dollars, and the County Superintendent shall have authority to designate the teachers who are required to attend summer school under the provisions of this Section.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 17th, 1914.
