

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That before this Act shall become operative the Mayor and Councilmen shall submit the issuing of the aforesaid bonds to the qualified voters of said town, which they are hereby empowered to do at any regular election, or they may call a special election for such submission, and at such election the ballots cast upon said question shall have the words "For Water Bonds," or "Against Water Bonds," and if a majority of the votes cast upon said question shall be "For Water Bonds," then the Mayor and Councilmen of said town may proceed at any time to execute the powers vested in them by the provisions of this Act; but if the majority of the votes cast upon this said question shall be "Against Water Bonds," then this Act shall be void. The Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg may submit this Act to the qualified voters of said town whenever, in their judgment they feel an additional supply of water for said town is necessary by publishing this Act in some newspaper circulated in said town at least ten days before said election shall be held.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 10th, 1914.
