

CHAPTER 641.

AN ACT to amend Article 91 of the Code of Public Civil Laws of Maryland (edited by George P. Bagby) as legalized by Chapter 22 of the Acts of 1912, title "Surveyor and State Survey," sub-title "Public Roads," by adding a new Section to follow immediately after Section 33, and to be known as Section 33-A, to provide additional qualifications for members of the "State Roads Commission," and relating to the method of their appointment by the Governor.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article 91 of the Code of Public Civil Laws of Maryland (edited by George P. Bagby) as legalized by Chapter 22 of the Acts of 1912, title "Surveyor and State Survey," sub-title "Public Roads," be and the same is hereby amended by adding a new section thereto to follow immediately after Section 33 and to be known as Section 33-A, to read as follows:

33-A. From and after the passage of this Act no person, except the Governor, who is an officer or employee of the Maryland Geological and Economic Survey, shall be eligible to serve or shall serve as a member of the State Roads Commission; and the Governor is hereby authorized and directed to promptly appoint as soon as may be after the passage of this Act in the place and stead of the two unpaid members of the State Roads Commission designated from the officers of the Maryland Geological and Economic Survey, two competent persons, citizens and residents of this State, as members of the State Roads Commission, and who shall receive the same salary, be invested with the same powers, be subject to the same restrictions and limitations and be charged with the same duties as is or are now or may hereafter be prescribed by Article 91 of the Code of Public General Laws, as to the three paid members, other than the chairman, of the State Roads Commission, created and established by Chapter 141 of the Acts of 1908 and the amendments thereto; and in making the selections and appointments of two paid members of the State Roads Commission, as he is hereby authorized and directed to do, in the place and stead of two unpaid members heretofore designated from the officers of the Maryland Geological and Economic Survey, the Governor shall not take both from same political party, but he shall select one of said members from the democratic party; and it is further provided that the Governor in making appointments to and selections for members of the State Roads Commission shall always so make his selection and appointments that at least two members of the State
