

factory excuse for not appearing before said board when first ordered, and on the recommendation of said boards to any officer failing to pass a satisfactory examination and shall have power to extend the probationary commission until such examination, but no such extension shall be granted for more than two sessions of said board. The board so appointed shall be named for a specific term of service.

SEC. 49. Camps of instruction for the first brigade and cruises for the naval brigade shall be held at such times and for such periods as the Governor as Commander-in-Chief may direct; provided, however, the camps of instruction herein authorized are held within the limits of the State.

SEC. 50. The forces prescribed and organized in this Article shall be considered in the actual service of the State and the members thereof shall be subject to all military laws, orders and regulations prescribed for the government thereof, and all military offenses shall be considered, and they are hereby declared to be offenses against the general police regulations of the State and shall be punished by fine or imprisonment as hereinafter provided. Except when on duty in time of war, insurrection, invasion, public danger or to aid the civil authorities on account of any breach of the peace, tumult, riot, resistance to the power of the State, or any imminent danger thereof, and also in any cases not otherwise covered, commissioned officers may be tried by the appropriate military courts provided for in this Article, for non-attendance without excuse at any drill, parade, encampment, meeting for instruction, or other duty ordered by competent authority, or for such other military offenses as may be declared to be such by orders or regulations issued by the Governor as Commander-in-Chief which, when issued, shall have the force and effect of law, or for such military offenses as are recognized and provided for in the Articles of War, Army and Naval Regulations of the United States now in force, or that may hereafter be adopted. Provided, however, that in times of peace the penalty upon conviction of any of the offenses specified or provided for in this Section or of the Articles of War or of the Army and Naval Regulations of the United States shall not exceed those provided for in this Article.

SEC. 54. Officers and enlisted men may be warned for duty as follows: Either by stating the substance of the order or by reading the order to the person warned, or by leaving a copy of such order at the last known place of abode or business, or by mailing to the postoffice nearest thereto. Such warning may
