

75 (17). The owner or manager of any vehicle for carrying passengers in the said city, provided that no proprietor of any livery stable who pays a license to the city as proprietor thereof shall require any other license for vehicles to carry passengers in the city as aforesaid.

SUB-SEC. AX. No ordinance, passed by The Commissioners of Cambridge, shall for any one offense, impose a fine of more than three hundred dollars, or authorize a commitment to jail or to the Maryland House of Correction for more than three years. When for any one fine, imposed under the provisions of this Charter of Cambridge or under the provisions of any ordinance of the city, any person is adjudged to stand committed until said fine and costs are paid, he shall stand committed for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, but after ten days' imprisonment, the party may be discharged, under the warrant of The Commissioners of Cambridge, signed by three of the said Commissioners, and addressed to the Sheriff for Dorchester County. Provided, also that any prisoner who is serving a sentence for a violation of any city ordinance may, in the discretion of The Commissioners of Cambridge, be required to work on the streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares of Cambridge, under such directions and supervision as the said The Commissioners of Cambridge may prescribe. The Sheriff shall not receive any fees for going in or out of any such prisoner for work, nor shall the said Sheriff be responsible for the custody of the said prisoner from the time that he leaves the jail until he returns.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That this Act take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 13th, 1914.

CHAPTER 681.
