

at said election on the second Monday in May, 1914, shall have qualified, but no longer.

SEC. 184-A 3. The Mayor and Council of Midland shall cause to be made and maintained a registration of the legal voters of said town, annually, which registration shall be essential to the right to vote at any election under this charter, but shall not be conclusive evidence of the right to vote. And the Mayor and Council shall, annually, on or before the third Monday in April, appoint two persons as officers of registration, who shall sit in public for one day from nine o'clock A. M. to twelve o'clock noon, and from one o'clock P. M. to five o'clock P. M., and from seven o'clock P. M. to nine o'clock P. M., and the said officers of registration shall give at least one week's notice by publication in one or more newspapers published in Allegany County, or by handbills publicly posted or distributed, of the time and place of their sitting, which time must not be less than one week before the election, at which time and place of their sitting all the qualified voters, legally entitled to vote, may register; and the said officers of registration, before entering upon their duties, shall take an oath, before some Justice of the Peace of Allegany County, to permit every qualified voter and none other to register; and each of said registration officers shall have the power to do any and all things required by this Section, or necessary in order to properly register a qualified voter, in case one of said officers of registration shall refuse to serve, or be unable to serve through death, sickness, or any other cause; and upon the completion of the registration of voters; the said officers of registration shall deliver to the judges of election a list of the qualified voters, so registered, and shall receive such compensation as the Mayor and Council of said town shall determine.

SEC. 184-A 4. No person shall be eligible to the office of Mayor unless he shall have attained the age of twenty-five years, shall have resided in the town limits of Midland, as prescribed in the plat and survey thereof on record in the Clerk's Office, of Allegany County, for three years next preceding his election, and shall also be assessed on the tax books of the Town of Midland with an amount not less than Two Hundred Dollars in real property, the tax on which shall not be in arrears. The Mayor elected at any regular election shall hold office for one year from the first Monday in June next after his election and until his successor is elected and qualified. Should a vacancy occur in the office of Mayor more than six months before the
