

the oath prescribed in Section 6 of Article 1 of the Constitution of Maryland. Annually, on the first Monday in April, he shall report, in writing, to the Council the receipts and disbursements of the town and the sums due to and owing by the town, if any be due, and shall make such recommendations as he thinks proper, and this report shall be printed in some newspaper published in Allegany County, or on handbills or pamphlets freely distributed, for the information of the voters of the town.

SEC. 184-A 5. On and after the first Monday in June, 1914, the Council shall be composed of four members who shall be elected as hereinbefore provided, and who shall hold office for two years from the first Monday in June next after their election, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that two of the members of the Council elected on the second Monday in May, 1914, shall hold office for one year only as hereinbefore provided. Before entering upon his duties each member of the Council shall take and subscribe before the Mayor, or any Justice of the Peace of Allegany County, the oath that he will diligently perform the duties required of him by law as a member of the Council, without partiality or prejudice. Any person having the qualifications prescribed in Section 184-A 2 of this Act, and who shall be assessed upon the books of the corporation with no less than Two Hundred Dollars worth of property, real or personal, the tax on which shall not be in arrears, shall be eligible as a member of the Council. The Council shall meet on the first Monday in each month, and at such other times as may be necessary for public business, and at such times as the Mayor may deem necessary. As compensation for his services, each member of the Council shall receive One Dollar for each and every session of the Council actually attended by him. If any vacancy shall occur in the Council from any cause whatsoever, the Council shall, without delay, elect some person possessing the necessary qualifications to fill such vacancy, and the person so elected shall hold office during the unexpired term of the member whose place he has been elected to fill.

SEC. 184-A 6. The Council shall appoint one Judge of Election and two Clerks of Election for the purpose of holding each general or special election which may be held under the provisions of this Act or the ordinances passed in pursuance thereof; the said Judges and Clerks of Election shall conduct all elections in all respects as such elections are usually con-
