

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland:

SECTION 1. The corporation heretofore constituted and organized as Goucher College, under the hereinafter mentioned laws and enactments, and located at Baltimore, shall be and remain a body corporate and politic to be known as Goucher College, with all the powers, rights and privileges conferred upon "The Trustees of the Woman's College of Baltimore City," a corporation duly incorporated under and by virtue of the general laws of Maryland on January 26th, 1885, and subsequently amended by the Acts of 1890, Chapter 325, of the General Assembly of Maryland, by which the name of said corporation was changed to "The Woman's College of Baltimore," and further amended by the Acts of 1910, Chapter 40, of the General Assembly of Maryland, by which the name of said corporation was changed to "Goucher College"; and all property of every name and kind whatsoever now held and possessed by or accruing to said corporation is hereby continued and confirmed in and to the corporation hereby constituted, to be held by it for the purpose set forth in the gift, grant or conveyance thereof, if any, and for the further uses and purposes hereinafter set forth.

SEC. 2. Said corporation shall be constituted for the purpose of establishing, promoting and conducting a college for the higher education of women under auspices distinctively favorable to the maintenance of the faith and practice of the Christian religion, but all departments of said college shall be open alike to students of any religion or sect and no denominational or sectarian test shall be imposed in the choice of Trustees, officers or teachers, or in the admission of students. Said College may have as many departments as the Trustees shall determine.

SEC. 3. Said corporation shall consist of the Board of Trustees of Goucher College now in office and their successors. Said successors shall be elected as follows: At the annual meeting of said Board of Trustees now in office, to be held in the month of June, 1914, or at any adjourned meeting thereof, said Trustees shall, by ballot, elect in their place and stead, as their successors, members of said corporation, to be known as the Trustees thereof, to a number of not more than thirty-three, of whom the President of the College shall be one. The Trustees so elected shall be divided, as nearly as possible, into three equal classes, and the term of the membership of the first class shall terminate in one year, of the second class in two years, and of the third class in three years, from the date of said elec-
