

tion. Such Trustees shall have the right to elect their successors, of whom the President of the College shall always be one, under terms and conditions prescribed herein, and in such By-Laws as may be adopted by said corporation, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act. The term of the Trustees so elected shall be three years, except that in the case of a vacancy caused by the death, resignation or removal of a Trustee before the expiration of the term for which he or she was elected the Trustee elected to fill said vacancy shall hold membership only for the balance of the said term, provided that if the place vacated is that of a Trustee elected from a list furnished by an Annual Conference or the General Alumnae Association, as hereinafter provided, said vacancy shall be filled from a list of nominations furnished by said Annual Conference at its next session or said General Alumnae Association at its next meeting. All Trustees shall be eligible for re-election at the expiration of their respective terms. They shall hold office until their successors have been duly chosen and have accepted the trust. Said Trustees shall be the ultimate source of authority in all matters pertaining to the College, and may act through the President of the College, and other officers and agents, and through such Standing Committees as shall be named, fixed and their powers and functions be described in the By-Laws.

SEC. 4. Of the aforementioned thirty-three Trustees, four thereof, only two of which four may be clergymen, shall be elected from a list of nominations which the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in annual session may furnish; two thereof, only one of whom may be a clergyman, shall be elected from a list of nominations which the Central Pennsylvania Conference in annual session may furnish; two thereof, only one of whom may be a clergyman, shall be elected from a list of nominations which the Philadelphia Conference in annual session may furnish; one thereof, a layman or a clergyman, shall be elected from a list of nominations which the Wilmington Conference in annual session may furnish; one thereof, a layman or a clergyman, shall be elected from a list of nominations which the New York Conference in annual session may furnish; one thereof, a layman or a clergyman, shall be elected from a list of nominations which the New York East Conference in annual session may furnish; and three thereof shall be elected from a list of nominations which the General Alumnae Association of Goucher College in annual meeting may furnish; provided, however, that if said Annual Conferences, or any of them, or said General Alumnae Association shall at any
