

not inconsistent with the laws of this State or with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Health; and its officers may enter upon and into any private property or building whenever necessary to execute or enforce any such ordinance. And they may pass such other ordinances as they may deem advisable in addition to the powers herein particularly enumerated to provide for the good government and peace, health and welfare of the town and the inhabitants therein. They shall have power to enforce the observation of all ordinances by fine, penalty and forfeiture not exceeding one hundred dollars for any one offense, or by imprisonment not exceeding sixty days in the jail of Caroline County or by both fine and imprisonment. And all ordinances relating to disorderly conduct and suppressing of nuisances may be enforced within the town limits and beyond for one-half a mile.

SEC. 87. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners shall have full power and authority to regulate and provide for the issuing of licenses or permits for all hawking, peddling and vending of patents and of goods, wares and merchandise of every description, upon the streets, lanes, alleys or highways of said town, to issue licenses or permits to all itinerant peddlers who may go from house to house to vend or sell any goods, wares or merchandise; to issue licenses to any and all persons entering into or beginning any transient business in said town for the sale or purchase of any goods, wares or merchandise, to regulate and provide for the issuing of licenses to all traveling persons or peddlers, who dispense medicines or medical advice; to regulate and license pawn brokers, junk dealers, fire sales and auction sales; to regulate and license all nine or ten pin alleys, bowling alleys, skating rinks, moving picture shows and all shows and exhibitions of every kind; to regulate the erection of poles and use thereof by telephone, telegraph, electric light or other Companies; to license all billiard, pool and bagatel tables kept for public use; to license dogs and provide for the killing of those going at large unlicensed; to regulate the inspection and sale of milk, vegetables and all other foods and all weights and measures. They may pass all ordinances necessary from time to time to carry out the foregoing provisions, and enforce the observation of all ordinances by fines, penalties and forfeitures not exceeding one hundred dollars in any one case; or by imprisonment not exceeding sixty days in the jail of Caroline County, provided that no greater sum than one hundred dollars be charged for any one license.