SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That two additional Sections be added to Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Baltimore County," as enacted by Chapter 495 of the Acts of 1908, to follow Section 147 and be known as 147-A and 147-B, to read as follows:

147-A. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish with gill nets, traps or set nets of any kind, or haul seines in the waters of Middle River, Baltimore County, west of a line drawn from Clay Bank on Turkey Point shore, southeasterly to the northeasternmost point on Sues Island, and thence in a line running southerly to a marked Rock Oak Tree standing on Gottlieb Konig's land, on the north side of Holly Neck Farm, and it shall also be unlawful to fish with gill nets, traps or set nets of any kind, or haul seines in Sues Creek, a tributary of Middle River, west of said line, and any person so fishing in said waters shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction of having violated this Section shall pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each offense, one-half of such fines to go to the informer and one-half to the School Board of Baltimore County.

147-B. Any Constable or Game Warden, who shall be satisfied either upon his own views or from information received on oath that any person has violated the provisions of the preceding Section, is authorized and empowered to arrest the offenders.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 18th, 1914.
