

and shall note over his signature the date on which such certificate was filed and shall forward all certificates in his possession as hereinbefore provided. And shall also perform all the other duties of a local registrar provided in this Act.

No sexton or person in charge of any premises in which interments are made shall inter or permit the interment or other disposition of any body unless it is accompanied by a burial permit, as provided in this Act. And each sexton or person in charge of any burial ground shall indorse upon the permit the date of interment, over his signature, and shall return all permits so indorsed to the local registrar of his district within ten days from the date of interment. He shall also keep a record of all interments made in the premises under his charge, stating the name of the deceased person, place or death, date of burial and name and address of the undertaker.

SEC. 10. Every County Registrar shall distribute to all local and deputy local registrars and other persons within his jurisdiction who, in his judgment, are likely to need them, blank forms of certificates and returns, supplied to him by the State Registrar of Vital Statistics; shall execute the provisions of all local ordinances or regulations not contrary to this Act that may be enacted to more effectually insure correct registration of births and deaths; shall record in the books furnished by the State Registrar of Vital Statistics such facts as may be therein required; shall amend his records in red ink over his signature as he may discover mistakes or omissions, and shall immediately notify the State Registrar of Vital Statistics in writing of such amendments; shall, if possible, keep such records in a fireproof safe. And on or before the fifteenth of each month send to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics all certified copies of births and deaths furnished to him by local registrars within his county as provided in Section 8.

SEC. 11. No interment of the dead body of any human being, or disposition thereof by entombment, cremation, transportation, interment of any other manner or form of disposition shall be made without a permit as aforesaid from the local registrar or deputy local registrar of the district where said person died, or otherwise than in accordance with such permit.

The certificate of death shall be filled out and signed by the physician last in attendance upon the deceased person within 48 hours after death, excepting in such cases where the body is viewed by the coroner and an inquest is held upon the same,
