

upon such reserved areas only by dredgers, scrapers or tongers of this State holding licenses for the current season, in the manner now prescribed by law, and subject also to the following special conditions and restrictions, viz:

(1) Oysters caught upon reserved areas shall be subject to a special charge or tax of five cents per bushel, which shall be collected by the buyers at the place where said oysters are to be no further shipped in bulk in vessels, and shall be paid weekly to the Comptroller or his agent by the buyers, such tax to be in addition to any other charge on oysters now or hereafter imposed by law, and payment thereof to be enforced in the same manner as the inspection tax provided for by Section 70 of said Article 72. The Deputy Commander shall sign in triplicate certificates serially numbered and substantially in the form following:

.....19....
I hereby certify that the cargo of oysters loaded by Captainof the vessel.....was taken from reserved areas and is subject to a tax of five cents per bushel, which is to be paid to the Comptroller or his agent.

.....
Deputy Commander.

Two copies of each certificate so issued shall be given the Captain of the vessel in which oysters are to be transported from such reserved areas, one of which shall be retained and the other shall be delivered to the ultimate buyer of said oysters as hereinafter stated. The third copy shall be forwarded by the Deputy Commander to the office of the Comptroller.

(2) Oysters caught upon reserved areas shall not be removed therefrom until the Deputy Commander in charge thereof shall have issued said certificates, as above provided.

(3) Said oysters shall be inspected and measured at the place of sale where the oysters are to be no further shipped in bulk in vessels, and before unloading the Captain of each vessel shall exhibit and deliver to the buyer one of the certificates furnished by the Deputy Commander, showing that such cargo of oysters is subject to the tax of five cents per bushel. Such oysters shall be unloaded only in the presence of an inspector, whose duty it shall be to inspect, measure and report upon such oysters to the Comptroller, in the same manner as upon other oysters sold in this State.
