

and remove all nuisances and obstructions from the streets, lanes and alleys, navigable waters, or wharves, and from lots adjoining streets, or any other place within the limits of said city; to restrain all disorder, disturbances, annoyances, disorderly conduct and drunkenness therein, to suppress street walkers and bawdy houses; to prevent firing of guns, cannons, pistols, rifles, sling-shots, firecrackers or other fireworks or other explosives therein; to suppress fires and prevent the dangers thereof; to establish and maintain a fire department; to establish the distance buildings shall be erected from the inner curb of the street line; to regulate the construction or repairing of buildings specifying the materials of which same shall be built and the granting of permits for the construction and repairing of buildings; and to require a reasonable fee for issuing such permit; to direct in what part of the city wooden buildings shall not be erected or constructed; to prevent and regulate the storage of gunpowder, oil or other combustible matter in such quantities and in such places as they may deem proper; to prevent obstructions on the streets, lanes, alleys and highways of said city; to regulate the width of tires of all vehicles used upon the streets, lanes, alleys and highways of said city; to license carts, wagons, carriages and other vehicles used for transporting goods or persons for hire, or burden or pleasure, and to license any such vehicle used for personal service, and to provide and regulate the numbering of same; to regulate the speed of horses, wheeled vehicles, bicycles, motor-cycles, automobiles, cars and locomotives in the city limits; to regulate the harbor of Crisfield, the anchorage of vessels in the navigable waters of the city, the hauling into the public wharf and other wharves, and for these purposes each policeman in said city shall have all the usual powers of harbor master; to regulate the erection and maintenance of proper safety appliances by railroads at street crossings; to regulate and license all pawnbrokers, junk dealers, fire and slaughter sales, auction sales, peddlers of nostrums, remedies, medicines, notions, and other goods, patent, secret or pretended inventions; to regulate and license all nine or ten pin alleys, bowling alleys, skating rinks, pool and billiard tables, theatres, moving picture shows, boxing and sparring contests, and all shows and exhibitions of every kind; to provide for the restraining of theatrical or other public amusements of an immoral or indecent nature in said city; to regulate the construction and maintenance of exits from places of amusement and all public buildings; to prevent gambling and games of chance; to regulate the use of sidewalks and all struc-