

fore a justice of the peace shall be fined not less than one or more than ten dollars and be committed to jail until fine and costs are paid; to provide for killing of dogs on which no taxes are paid; to provide for the protection of all public property, cemeteries and property of all public service companies and corporations, and for any franchise, easement or privilege granted the Mayor and Council may charge for such franchises, easements or privileges when granted, and may charge an annual rental upon any franchise, easement or privilege for using the streets, highways and sidewalks of said city that hitherto has been granted or may hereafter be granted; to punish and suppress tramps and vagrants by imposing fines or both fines and imprisonment, or by hard labor on the streets of the City, and may employ any person sentenced to the town jail for thirty days or more and confined therein for non-payment of any fine and costs, and to abate by appropriate ordinance all nuisances in said City which are so defined at common law, by this Act, or by the laws of the State of Maryland, whether the same are herein specifically named or not: The Mayor and Council may establish and provide a market house in the said City for the use and convenience of the inhabitants thereof, and may by by-laws and ordinances, provide for and regulate the sale of all provisions brought to said City for sale, the trying and adjusting of the scales, weights and measures used at the market by the standards of the County, and the seizure and sale to the highest bidder or the destruction of any found false or untrue, the renting of the stalls and shambles of the market, and for the seizure and sale for the use of the Mayor and Council of articles of any kind found wanting in weight or unsound or unwholesome. The police shall have charge of and supervision over the market house and market therein, under the direction and control of the Mayor and Council, and if any person shall feel aggrieved by any seizure made by the police, he may within three days after such seizure appeal to the Mayor and Council, who shall make such order therein as they deem best. The rent of the stalls and shambles of the market house may be recovered in the name of the Mayor and Council before a justice of the peace as small debts are recovered. The Mayor and Council of Crisfield are further authorized generally to pass all necessary by-laws and ordinance not contrary to law for preservation of health, comfort, convenience, morals, cleanliness, peace and good order of the community, and for protection of the lives and property of the citizens and inhabitants of said City, and for the suppression, abatement and discontinuance of