

Elections," including the provision for furnishing new registry books and transcribing the names of qualified voters residing in Dorchester County from the registry books in use to the new registry books, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof by the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, the respective Boards of Supervisors of Elections in the several counties of the State were authorized and required immediately upon the passage of said Act to have prepared new books of registry for use in all of the districts or precincts of the said several counties of the State for the transcribing of the names of the qualified voters residing therein from the registry books in use, and the said Board of Supervisors of Elections for each county were therein authorized to select four (4) clerks to transcribe the names as therein called for; and,

WHEREAS, The Supervisors of Elections of Dorchester County, either through oversight or neglect, have failed to provide said new books of registry and to have the said names transcribed therein; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 160-E of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," sub-title "Primary Elections," as said Section was amended by Chapter 347 of the Acts of 1912, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments in so far as the said Section applies to or affects Dorchester County, so as to read as follows:

160-E. As many different sets of official ballots shall be printed and supplied by the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Dorchester County at each polling place, and as many ballot boxes shall be used at each polling place as there are separate party nominations, delegates, executives or managing or executive bodies to be voted for; and to prevent voters belonging to or acting with one political party from inadvertently or intentionally casting their ballots for the candidate for nomination for office, or election as delegate to any convention or as executive or member of an executive or managing committee of any other party, and to facilitate its being promptly detected if so cast, the ballots of the several parties shall be printed upon opaque paper of different colors, to be determined by the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Dorchester County; and until after the next general registration in Dorchester County every person offering to vote at a primary election shall be required to state to which party he belongs and which party's candidate he intends
