

his possession or under his control which the Chief of said Bureau is authorized to require, and for the purpose of inspection shall admit the Chief of said Bureau or his authorized representative to any place which is affected by this Act or which is required by law to be inspected. Any person who refuses to admit the Chief of said Bureau, or person authorized by him, to any such establishment, or to furnish any such information, or who refuses to answer, or untruthfully answers questions lawfully put to him by the Chief of said Bureau, or any deputy of said Chief, in a circular or otherwise, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be fined not less than five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars for each offense.

SEC. 245. No room or apartment in any tenement or dwelling house, and no part of any tenement or dwelling house, shall be used for the purpose of manufacturing, in whole or in part, altering, repairing or finishing therein, any articles whatsoever, except for the exclusive use of the person so using any part of such tenement or dwelling house, or the immediate members of his household without a license therefor as provided in this Section.

Application for such license shall be made to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics and Information by any member of a family desiring to do such work in any room or apartment of a tenement or dwelling house. Such application shall designate the location of the room or apartment, the number of persons to be employed therein, the street and number of, and the full name and address of the owner of, the building in which the room or apartment is located, and shall be signed by the applicant. Application blanks shall be prepared and furnished by the Bureau of Statistics and Information in such form as the Chief thereof may determine.

Upon receipt of such application the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics and Information shall consult the records of the local health department or board, or other appropriate local authority charged with the duty of sanitary inspection, and if such records show the presence of any infectious, contagious or communicable disease, or the existence of any unsanitary conditions in or about such room or apartment, the Chief of said Bureau may, without making an inspection of the premises deny such application for a license, until such time as the records of the said department, board or other local authority show that the said premises are
