

free from all such infectious, contagious or communicable disease, and from all unsanitary conditions. Before, however, any such license is granted, an inspection of the room or apartment sought to be licensed must be made by the duly authorized inspector of the Bureau of Statistics and Information, and a statement must be filed in said Bureau as a matter of public record, to the effect that the records of the local health department or board, or other local authority charged with the duty of sanitary inspection, do not show the existence of any infectious, contagious or communicable disease, or of any unsanitary conditions in or about said room or apartment. Such statement must further show the results of the inspection of such premises, and must be dated and signed in ink by the inspector responsible therefor. If the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics and Information ascertain that such room or apartment is free from infectious, contagious or communicable disease, and is in proper sanitary condition, he shall grant a license, permitting the use of such room or apartment for the purpose of manufacturing, and stating the number of persons allowed to work therein. An inspection of each licensed tenement or dwelling house workshop shall be made not less than once in every six months to determine whether or not the conditions under which such license was granted and all laws relating to such premises are being complied with.

No articles shall be manufactured in whole or in part, altered, repaired, or finished in any room or apartment of a tenement or dwelling house where there is or has been a case of infectious, contagious or communicable disease, until such time as the local department or board of health shall certify to the Bureau of Statistics and Information that such disease has terminated, and that the room or apartment has been properly disinfected, if disinfection after such disease is required by law, or by the rules and regulations of such department or board. No person, firm or corporation shall hire, employ or contract with any person to manufacture in whole or in part, alter, repair or finish any articles in any room or apartment of any tenement or dwelling house, unless a license has been issued therefor as aforesaid. No room or apartment in any tenement or dwelling house shall be used for the manufacture in whole or in part, altering, repairing or finishing of any articles except by the immediate members of the family living therein, which shall be limited to a husband and wife, their children or the children of either. No room or apartment in any tenement or dwelling
