

At the first meeting of the Board, and at each annual meeting in June, an organization shall be effected by the election from its membership of a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

SEC. 5. For the purpose of examining applicants for license, the said Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall hold two stated meetings in each year, due notice of which shall be made public, at such times and places as the Board may determine. At said meetings a majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum thereof; but the examination may be conducted by a committee of one or more members of the Board of Examiners, duly authorized by said Board; but no license to practice osteopathy shall be granted on an affirmative vote of less than three. Said examinations shall be conducted in writing, in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners, and may be supplemented by practical examinations at the bedside in available eleemosynary or other institution, the laboratory, and by practical tests upon the human cadaver, and shall embrace the subjects named in Section eight of this Act. After each such examination the committee having charge thereof, shall, without unnecessary delay, act upon the same. An official report of such action, signed by each acting member of said committee of examiners, stating the examination average of each candidate in each branch, the general average, and the result of the examination, whether successful or unsuccessful, shall be transmitted to the said State Board of Osteopathic Examiners. Said report shall embrace all the examination papers, questions and answers thereto, and such written reports as result from the practical tests as hereinbefore specified. All such examination papers and reports shall be kept for reference and inspection, for a period of not less than five years. The Board shall keep a record of its proceedings, and a register of all applicants for license; giving the name and location of the institution granting the applicant the degree of doctor of, or diplomat in osteopathy; the date of his or her diploma; and also whether the applicant was rejected or granted a license, and the number of the license granted. The record and register shall be prima facie of all matters recorded therein.

SEC. 6. All fees provided by this Act shall be paid in advance to the Treasurer of the Board, to be by him held as fund for the use of the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners. The compensation and expenses of the members and officers of said Board, and all expenses proper and necessary, in the opinion of said board, to discharge its duties under, and to enforce the law, shall
