

ing their election; must continue to reside within said corporate limits during their term of office, and must serve without pay, except the President, who receives the fees hereinafter allowed.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the three Commissioners shall, within ten days after their election choose one of their number President, and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Commissioners shall be filled by an election held after ten days' notice given by the remaining Commissioners.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall meet in some convenient place in said town on or before the first Monday in June following their election and as often thereafter as may be necessary to the discharge of their duties.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That said Commissioners annually, on or before the first Monday in April in each year, appoint three judges of election, who shall conduct the election according to the laws of the State, except that the hours of election shall be from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock P. M.; except, further, that one of the Judges shall act as clerk of said election; and except further, that the ballots used may be such as were used at elections prior to the adoption of the "Australian System." The said judges of election shall certify to the County Commissioners the result of said election, and the three candidates receiving the greatest number of votes, they shall be declared elected, but said judges of election shall receive no compensation for their services.

The first election shall be before J. F. Coad, W. F. Chesley and W. Riggs MacGill, who are hereby appointed judges for that purpose.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That said Commissioners shall annually appoint a clerk, who may also be treasurer, and who shall keep the minutes of the proceedings in a well-bound book, which shall be open at any time to the inspection of any one interested. If said Commissioners shall appoint the clerk treasurer, the clerk shall give a bond in such sum as the Commissioners shall deem proper, and shall pay out the money that shall come into his hands only on the order of the Commissioners, which order shall plainly appear in the minutes.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall annually appoint a bailiff and such under bailiffs as may be necessary.