

If there are partly dependent persons at the time of the death, the payment shall be fifty per cent. of the average weekly wages, and to continue for all or such portion of the period of eight years after the date of the injury, as the Commission in each may determine, and not to amount to more than a maximum of three thousand dollars.

The following persons shall be presumed to be wholly dependent for support upon a deceased employe: A wife or invalid husband ("Invalid" meaning one physically or mentally incapacitated from earning), a child or children under the age of sixteen years (or over said age if physically or mentally incapacitated from earning) living with or dependent upon the parent at the time of the injury or death.

In all other cases, questions of dependency, in whole or in part, shall be determined in accordance with the facts in each particular case existing at the time of the injury resulting in death of such employe, but no person shall be considered as dependent unless such person be a father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, stepchild or grandchild, or brother or sister of the deceased employe, including those otherwise specified in this Section.

An alien shall not be considered a dependent within the meaning of this Act unless he be a resident within the United States.

SEC. 36. In addition to the compensation provided for herein the employer shall promptly provide for an injured employe, such medical, surgical or other attendance or treatment, nurse and hospital services, medicines, crutches and apparatus as may be required by the Commission in an amount not to exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00). If the employer fail to provide the same the injured employe may do so at the expense of the employer. The employe shall not be entitled to recover any amount expended by him for such treatment or services unless he shall or some one on his behalf have requested the employer to furnish the same, and the employer shall have refused or neglected to do so. All fees and other charges for such treatment and services shall be subject to regulations by the Commission, and shall be limited to such charges as prevail in the same community for similar treatment of injured persons of a like standard of living, and in case death ensues from the injury within two years, reasonable funeral expenses shall be allowed not to exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75). Provided, however, that if
