

thence along the boundary line between Ken Gar and W. B. McKeldin's subdivision to the northeasterly side of Bonnycastle Avenue, subdivision of Ken Gar; thence northwesterly with said Bonnycastle Avenue to a point in the prolongation of the eastern boundary of the old Bladensburg road; thence to and with said eastern boundary in a southerly direction to a point in the prolongation of the boundary between the lands of T. S. Cartrell and the subdivision of Kensington Park; thence to and with said line to the line of Alfred Ray; thence along the boundary between the lands of Alfred Ray and the subdivision of Kensington Park to the southerly limit line of the Metropolitan Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; thence without change of course to the northerly limit line of the Metropolitan Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; thence along the southern boundary line of Mannakee Avenue, better known as the road to Capitol View, to St. Paul Street, better known as the Wheaton Road; thence along the eastern boundary line of St. Paul Street, for the width of Mannakee Avenue, to the northern boundary line of said Mannakee Avenue; thence along the northern boundary line of Mannakee Avenue, and for its full length thereof, to the boundary line between the properties of Clarence Chapman and August Burgdorf; thence along said boundary to the line of W. H. Mannakee; thence along the dividing line between the lands of said W. H. Mannakee and August Burgdorf to the line of W. H. Wheatley and August Burgdorf to the County Road leading to Plyer Post Office; thence along the southerly side of said County Road to a point opposite the boundary line between the subdivision of Kensington Heights and the property of W. H. Wheatley to Madison Street, North Kensington; thence along the easterly side of Madison Street, subdivision of North Kensington, to the middle of Perry Avenue, prolonged; thence with the middle of Perry Avenue to the place of beginning.

SEC. 353. On or before the first day of June, 1912, and each third year thereafter, the council shall appoint three assessors, freeholders of said town, who shall, under the direction of the said Council, make an assessment of all property, real, personal and mixed, in said town, at a fair cash value at public sale, as near as they may be able to determine the same, and the Council shall immediately thereupon levy a tax thereon not exceeding fifty cents on the hundred dollars' worth of assessable property in any one year, and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person or persons against whom they may be levied, and any person may appeal from the