

burg Confession in Baltimore, Maryland, dated February 3rd, 1914, and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore City in Liber SCL No. 2876, folio 513, etc., of property on the west side of Battery Avenue at the distance of sixteen feet southerly from Little Church Street, and having a frontage of thirty-three feet on Battery Avenue and a depth of even width westerly of fifty-one feet and four inches to the east side of a three-foot alley; with full power to the said Martini German Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession in Baltimore, Maryland, to hold, mortgage, sell, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of any and all property acquired under the lease and deed aforesaid.

(52) To the bequest under the last will and testament of Susan A. Hallett, late of Baltimore City, deceased, dated September 28th, 1897, to the "Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South."

(53) To the bequest under the last will and testament of George W. Davis, late of Harford County, deceased, dated December 6th, 1912, to "The Ministers and Trustees of Union Chapel M. P. Church in Harford County in the State of Maryland" and (b) unto the "Regular Baptist Church of Harford County and State of Maryland."

(54) To the bequest under the last will and testament of Drusilla T. Close, late of Baltimore City, deceased, dated December 9th, 1904, to "Babcock Memorial Presbyterian Church of Baltimore City."

(55) To the bequest under the last will and testament of John Gill, late of Baltimore City, deceased, duly probated in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City, of the sum of five thousand dollars to the Vestry of Christ Church in the City of Baltimore.

(56) To the deed, sale, grant and conveyance from Samuel D. Phillips and Jennie Phillips, his wife, and Abraham Freedenberg and Rebecca Leah Freedenberg, his wife, to the Trustees of the Aitz Chaim Hebrew Congregation of Baltimore City, a body corporate, of the two lots or parcels of ground situate in Baltimore County, and more particularly described in said deed from the said Abraham Freedenberg and Rebecca Leah Freedenberg, his wife, to the Trustees of the Aitz Chaim Hebrew Congregation of Baltimore City, a body corporate, dated the third day of February, 1911, and recorded among the Land