

the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to levy an additional tax (beyond the limit fixed for the regular town tax for said town) on the assessable property of said town, as may be necessary thereto.

289-F. Before the said bonds shall be issued for any of the purposes aforesaid, the said "Commissioners of Rising Sun" shall first submit said proposition to bond said town to the vote of the legally qualified voters and taxpayers of said town, to be held on some date to be fixed by them not earlier than one month from the date of the passage of this Act, and not later than six months from the passage thereof; and if at said election a majority of the votes cast at said election shall approve of the issue of said bonds for the purposes aforesaid, then the said "The Commissioners of Rising Sun" shall issue said bonds, in the way and manner, and for the purposes hereinbefore provided; and should a majority of said qualified voters and taxpayers decide at said election against the issuing of said bonds, then this Act is hereby repealed. And the said "The Commissioners of Rising Sun" are hereby fully authorized to pass all necessary ordinances and to make necessary appointments for the purpose of holding said election and ascertaining the true result.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 20th, 1914.
