

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That said Mayor and Council shall have power to pass, and to enforce by suitable penalties, such ordinances as may be found necessary to protect the water, sewerage and disposal plant hereinbefore mentioned and to require the connection of all houses within the present or future corporate limit of said Town of Rockville with the sewers to be constructed and generally to pass and enforce all ordinances which it may deem proper for the health and cleanliness of said town.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That a Commission of seven persons, consisting of Dr. Ernest L. Bullard, Charles W. Prettyman, Robert B. Peter, Richard H. Stokes, William W. Welsh, Robert G. Hilton and Dr. Otis M. Linthicum be and the same are, hereby appointed to assist and co-operate with the said Mayor and Council of Rockville in the construction or extension of the waterworks, and the construction of the sewerage system and sewerage disposal plant or plants contemplated by this Act. Said committee to act in an advisory capacity, except that no plan shall be adopted or contract made for any of the real estate needed or work mentioned in this Act without the approval of at least a majority of said committee. Any vacancy in said committee caused by resignation, death, removal from the Town of Rockville, or any other disability shall be filled by a majority of the remaining members of said Committee.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That after the passage of this Act no contract for the purchase of any supplies or materials or work involving an expenditure of five hundred dollars ($500.00) or more by the Town of Rockville shall be let or awarded except to the lowest responsible bidder, after due and proper advertisement for sealed bids to be opened at a joint meeting, properly called, of the Mayor and Council of Rockville and the Advisory Committee provided for in Section 7 of this Act. And it shall be appropriate to require each bidder to accompany his bid with a certified check in the reasonable amount specified in such advertisement and that a bond with approved surety should be required for the faithful performance of any such contract, checks to be returned to unsuccessful bidder or bidders after bids have been opened and contract awarded.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 16th, 1914.
