

interest on said bonds and their payment upon maturity, and to do all other things that may be necessary and proper in the procuring of the loan, the issuance and payment of the bonds, and the carrying on of the work provided under the ordinance hereinbefore authorized.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the bonds herein provided for shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, and shall be forever exempt from all taxation for county, municipal and school purposes, but said bonds shall not be sold for less than their par value.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That full authority is hereby given the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis to construct said sewage disposal plant in order that the sewerage may be taken from the waters of Severn River and the tributaries thereof, and to that end they are hereby fully empowered to condemn the necessary land either within or without the city limits under the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland relating to condemnation of land by corporations, and are fully authorized to construct said sewage disposal plant in connection with the federal owners and the State of Maryland in order that the sewage of the City of Annapolis, the State Buildings, the United States Naval Academy and the United States Naval Hospital may all be carried into said sewage disposal plant. And after the building and completion of said sewerage disposal plant the Mayor, Counsellor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis are fully authorized and empowered to prohibit or regulate by ordinance or otherwise the disposal or dumping of garbage, dirt or filth of any kind in the waters of the Severn River or the tributaries thereof.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 16th, 1914.

CHAPTER 819.

“AN ACT to add an Additional Section, to be known as Section 1-A, to Article 21 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1904, title ‘Conveyancing,’ providing that females, whether married or single, shall be of full age upon arrival at the age of twenty-one years.”

(Vetoed.)