

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Kensington shall have full power to collect said special tax and the service charges provided for in Section 5 of this Act, by the voluntary payment of the same by those responsible therefor or by sale, that is to say, in like manner as other town taxes in said Town of Kensington are collected; and when said tax and said charges are collected they shall be applied as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That ten days after the ratification of this Act by the method hereinafter provided, the Mayor of said town shall select three discreet, male persons, over the age of thirty, taxpayers of said town, and residents of said town for three years next preceding their appointment, said persons shall compose the "Water and Sewerage Commission," and serve without compensation; the duties of said Commission shall be advisory solely; they may examine all contracts and accounts in the establishment and construction of said system; inquire into any matter or thing incident to the establishment of said system, the bond sale and the expenditure of the proceeds thereof; notice of any meeting of the Mayor and Town Council shall be given, in writing, to each member of said Commission at least two days prior to the same. The terms of the Commissioners shall expire when said system is installed and in working order.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That on the fourth Saturday in April, 1914, there shall be a special election held in the said Town of Kensington, which election shall be held in the same manner and under the same regulations, unless in this section otherwise provided, as municipal elections in said town are held, for the purpose of submitting the question as to whether this act shall take effect; and all ballots at said election shall have placed on them the words "For Water and Sewerage" and the words "Against Water and Sewerage," and all qualified voters hereunder desiring to vote for the provisions of this act shall mark out the words "Against Water and Sewerage," and those desiring to vote against the provisions of this act, shall mark out the words "For Water and Sewerage." The only persons qualified to vote at said election shall be male and female record owners and taxpayers of real estate to the Town of Kensington since January 1st, 1914, over the age of twenty-one, and who were residents of the Town of Kensington on January 1st, 1914, and were actually domiciled
