

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections one to twenty-seven, inclusive, of Chapter 689 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, being "An Act to incorporate the Town of Preston in Caroline County," and all amendments and additions thereto, except as hereinafter retained and preserved, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to be numbered Section one to twenty-nine, inclusive, so as to read as follows:

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the inhabitants of Preston are hereby declared to be a body corporate, by the name of "Commissioners of Preston," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and have and possess all powers incident to municipal corporations, as well as those hereinafter particularly enumerated.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the limits of said town shall be as follows:

Beginning for the first line at a point in the public road leading from Preston to Bethlehem, near the division line between the land of Mrs. Mary A. Cox and L. P. Williams, and running in a straight line, so as to include the canning house of Beverly W. Wright within the corporate limits, to and across the Baltimore and Eastern Shore Railroad, to a point where a line at nearly a right angle with the first line will strike, the line between the lands of L. P. Williams and Isaac L. Noble, then with said line to and across the public road leading from Preston to Choptank, so as to include the residence and outbuilding of Thomas H. Fluharty, and continue in a straight line to what is known as the Back Landing Road, then northeast with said road to the public road leading from Preston to Linchester, crossing the said road at or near the Friends' Meeting House, and continuing in a straight line on the lands of George F. Whitely, to a point where a nearly right angle line, after crossing the lands of the heirs of Dr. H. F. Willis, will strike the division line between the lands of J. H. Douglass and E. T. Moore, and continuing with said division line, and in a straight line, to and across the public road known as the Church Road, across the land of Joseph Douglass to the lane leading from his farm house, then in a southwesterly direction, in a straight line to the place of beginning.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the government of said town shall be vested in and enforced by three Commis-
