

SEC. 117-B. The treasurer and collector, in the case of State taxes, shall make application to the County Commissioners for an allowance for all just claims, for insolvents and removals, and he shall append thereto his affidavit, made before the said Commissioners, that he has not received and cannot collect any of the money for which such allowances are asked, and the President of the Board of County Commissioners is hereby authorized to administer such oath. Upon the presentation of such application and affidavit with the certificate of the County Commissioners appended to and endorsed thereon, setting forth that they believe the allowances claimed to be just, the comptroller of the State shall make the allowances asked for, and the County Commissioners shall likewise, in the case of County taxes, make all just allowances for insolvents and removals, upon being satisfied of the justice thereof.

SEC. 118. On the first day of August, November and February succeeding the levy of taxes, and oftener if the County Commissioners require it, the said treasurer shall make to said Commissioners a sworn report of the receipts and disbursements of the public moneys and funds in his hands, for the three preceding months, showing the sources of such receipts and the respective accounts for which such disbursements were made, and on the first day of May in each year he shall make a similar report covering the receipts and disbursements, for the preceding year, which reports shall be countersigned by the clerk of the Board of County Commissioners and then delivered to the auditor of taxes, to be audited by him, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 118-A. The treasurer and collector shall pay to the treasurer of the Board of County School Commissioners of Dorchester County all moneys levied for the support of the public schools thereof at the time, and in the manner prescribed by the laws of this State.

SEC. 118-B. The treasurer, subject to the consent of the County Commissioners, shall appoint such clerks as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of his office who shall be deputy treasurers, shall qualify under the Constitution of the State, and shall give bonds to the treasurer as he may require, but the aggregate annual salary of said clerks shall in no case exceed the sum of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00). The County Commissioners may appoint a stenographer and typewriter at a salary not exceeding Three Hundred and Sixty Dol-
