

SEC. 120-A. In the event that the bond of any Treasurer shall become liable to Dorchester County or to the State of Maryland for any unpaid or uncollected taxes, the sureties on said bond shall be empowered to enforce the payment of said taxes in the manner prescribed by the Public General Laws of this State relating to revenue and taxes.

SEC. 120-B. In April, in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen, and in April, in every second year thereafter, or as soon as practicable thereafter, the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, or one of the judges thereof shall appoint a competent accountant to make a careful examination of the Treasurer's and Collector's quarterly and yearly reports mentioned in Section 118-A; and such other accounts connected with the offices of the County Treasurer and the County Commissioners as the County Commissioners may direct. Said accountant shall be called "the Auditor of Taxes in Dorchester County," and shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe before the Clerk of the Circuit Court, the official oath prescribed by the State Constitution, and he shall hold office for two years, from the first day of May following his appointment, and for his services he shall receive such yearly salary as the County Commissioners may fix, and shall be paid the same by the said Commissioners in two equal semi-annual installments on the second Tuesday in January, and the second Tuesday in July. He shall report in writing to the County Commissioners, the result of his examination as soon after he has made the same as may be practicable. In case of a vacancy in said office, the said Court or one of the judges thereof shall fill the vacancy for the balance of the unexpired term.

SEC. 121. The Treasurer may, in his discretion, attend in person or by deputy in each election district, three days in each year to collect and receive taxes, and he shall give at least two weeks' notice of the time and place of such visits to the respective districts by hand bills and post same conspicuously in no less than three public places in such election district of said County, and by advertising in two newspapers published in Dorchester County, and said notice and advertisement shall contain a brief statement of the discounts allowed and interest charged on tax bills.

SEC. 121-A. The County Commissioners shall annually at their first meeting in the month of March appoint one competent person residing in each election district of Dorchester
