

of building, as in their discretion is best, and to either build the same by contract, after due notice by advertisement in two newspapers published in said Charles County, Maryland, for bidders, the contract to be awarded the lowest bidder who shall, before commencing the work of building the new Jail, give bond to the County Commissioners for double the amount of the contract price; or, under their own supervision by daily labor, the same to be completed by the end of the year 1914; provided, however, that the said new jail shall be built at a cost not to exceed Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00.)

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That to pay the cost of the construction of the said Jail and the purchase of the necessary appurtenances the money received by the County Commissioners of Charles County, Maryland, from the sale of the tract of land known as the "Almshouse tract," and the money now in the hand of the said County Commissioners of Charles County, Maryland, derived from the payment of the Insurance Policy on the old "Almshouse" as the result of the destruction of said "Almshouse" by fire, shall be first applied and the remainder by a levy upon the assessable property of Charles County, Maryland, one-half to be levied by the County Commissioners of said Charles County, Maryland, in the levy of the year 1914, and the remaining sum that may be due to be levied by the said County Commissioners of said Charles County, Maryland, in the levy of 1915; the said County Commissioners shall issue a certificate for the last mentioned sum to be dated from the date of the completion of the said removal and rebuilding of said jail or when the acceptance and approval of the jail shall be made by the County Commissioners to bear legal interest from date until paid.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 20th, 1914.

---

CHAPTER 127.

AN ACT to amend Article Twenty-two of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," subtitle "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks," by adding an additional Section thereto, to follow Section 325-G, as enacted by Chapter 380 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1908, and to be known as Section 325-G G.