

or any mixture of the same made by him, or in or about his place of business to all persons whatsoever, the date of such sale, the name of the purchaser, who shall also sign his name in said book as a part of said entry and his residence, the kind, quantity, price of such liquor and the purposes for which it was sold and when the sale is for medicinal purposes, the book shall also contain the name of the physician issuing the prescription therefor such prescription shall be cancelled by writing on it "Cancelled" and the date on which it was presented and filled, and kept on file. No prescription shall be filled a second time. Such book shall be open to inspection by the State's Attorney, Justice of the Peace, having criminal jurisdiction, Judge of the Circuit Court, Sheriff or Constable. And it shall be unlawful for any druggist to sell any intoxicating liquors to any person unless they have a prescription of a bona fide practicing physician in said County or the said person for whom application for liquor is made is actually sick and such liquor is absolutely required for medicinal purposes and delay may be dangerous to the patient. And any druggist or pharmacist or any person for them, who shall violate any of the provisions of this Section, shall be guilty of unlawful selling, and upon conviction, shall be subject to the fines and penalties provided in the preceding Sections of this Act. Nothing in this Section is to be construed to prevent the sale by a regular druggist or pharmacist of wine to be used for sacramental purposes solely.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all places where intoxicating liquor is sold in violation of any provision of this Act shall be taken and held and are declared to be common nuisances and may be abated as such; and it shall be part of the judgment, upon the conviction of the keeper, that the place where liquor is found to have been sold contrary to this Act be shut up and abated until the keeper shall give bond, with sufficient security to be approved by the court, in the penal sum of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars, payable to the State of Maryland, conditioned that he will not sell intoxicating liquor contrary to law, and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for any violation thereof; and in case of a violation of the condition of such bond, suit may be brought and recovery had thereon for the use of St. Mary's County, for any fine or fines that may be assessed against him under this Act.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all prosecutions for violations of this Act, which are hereby declared to be misdemeanors,