

carrier, or its agents, does not know the identity of the person who may call for the said liquors, the said carrier or its agents shall use reasonable precaution to be assured of the identity of such person before delivery.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to carry, bring or have brought into Cecil County any spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, except as hereinbefore provided, and any delivery by any carrier or its agent or any receipt by any person, other than is provided for in this Act, shall be deemed to have been done with intent to violate the law of said county relating to or prohibiting the sale of such liquors. Any person, firm or corporation who violates the provisions of this Section upon trial and conviction therefor shall be subject to the fines and penalties hereinbefore provided in Section 2 of this Act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to the shipment or delivery to duly licensed pharmacists or druggists to be used in compliance with existing laws and to hospitals in said County, of spirituous or vinous liquors and alcohol; nor to the delivery to churches or proper officers thereof of wine in unbroken packages for sacramental purposes.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all prosecutions for violations of the provisions of the preceding Sections of this Act, which are hereby declared to be criminal offenses, may be either upon presentment and indictment, or by trial before a Justice of the Peace for said County in which the offense is committed, and jurisdiction original and concurrent with the Circuit Courts for the aforesaid County is hereby given in such cases to the Justices of the Peace in and for the aforesaid County in which the said offense is committed and the said Justices of the Peace shall have power to issue all process and do all acts which may be necessary for the exercise of said jurisdiction and may try and determine all such cases and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein to the same extent as the Circuit Court for such County could do in such cases, if such cases were tried before said Court without a Jury; provided, however, that if any person when brought before any such Justice having jurisdiction in the case shall, before trial for the alleged offense, pray a jury trial, or if the State's Attorney for the County shall, before trial of such alleged offense, pray a
