

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Board of County Commissioners of Baltimore County, when petitioned to do so, as hereinafter provided for, are hereby authorized, directed and required to make a special annual levy to the amount petitioned for each year at the time of making the annual tax levy for the year Nineteen Hundred and Fourteen and for each succeeding year, unless an opposing petition thereto is filed, as hereinafter provided for; that said special annual levy shall be collected as other taxes are collected and is not to exceed the sum of twenty cents on each one hundred dollars of the whole assessable property situated and located within the limits of the village of Towson, Baltimore County, which for the purpose of this Act are thus described to wit:

Beginning on the north side of Chesapeake Avenue at the division line between the properties now owned by Thomas W. Offutt and Thomas E. German and running thence northerly bounding on said division line and continuing the same course to the north side of Alleghany Avenue, thence easterly along the north side of Alleghany Avenue to a point 150 feet westerly from Highland Avenue, thence northerly parallel with Highland Avenue to intersect a line drawn parallel with and distant 200 feet northerly at right angles from Joppa Road, thence easterly parallel with Joppa Road to the western right of way limits of the Towson and Cockeysville Railway, thence southerly along said right of way to the north side of Joppa Road, thence southeasterly along said road to the southwestern corner of the land now belonging to George W. Seipp, thence northerly along said Seipp western outline to the northwestern corner of said land, thence easterly along the northern outlines of said Seipp's land to the east side of Baltimore Avenue, thence northerly along Baltimore Avenue to the outline of Monte Marie Cemetery, thence southeasterly along said Cemetery to the southeast side of Washington Avenue, thence northeasterly along Washington Avenue and continuing the same course to the northeast side of Joppa Road, thence southeasterly along Joppa Road to the division line between the properties now owned by Julius Rudiger and the M. E. Church, thence northeasterly along said division line and continuing the same course to the outline of Prospect Hill Cemetery, thence southeasterly along the outline of said Cemetery to the west side of Dulaney's Valley Turnpike Road, thence southerly along said road to a point in line with the south side of an avenue running from said turnpike road to the Joppa Road, in rear of the